

that if General White keeps strictly on the defensive he will be able to hold his own. The British expectant to the Boer plan of campaign which contemplates seizing Durban in order to prevent the landing of British troops there. They say it has one fatal defect, namely, that it ignores the British fleet under whose guns it is alleged, the seizure of Durban will be impossible.

The dispatches today show that the forces of the Orange Free State at length prepared to invade Cape Colony. These forces are not overwhelming, but the Dutch in the neighborhood of Colerburg and Bunderburg are exceptionally pro-Boer and their support is evidently expected. The objective of this force of Boers will probably be Naauport, one of the Boer's most important strategic railroad points in South Africa, which will probably be, it is said here, the first advanced depot of the second division of the army corps. Naauport is understood to be well garrisoned and able to take care of itself. Trains thence to Colerburg have been almost entirely suspended.

The dispatches from Ladysmith though three days old, are regarded here as being more cheering and as indicating that the Boers are not disposed to commence an offensive. On the other hand some people assert it is more probable that the Boers are recuperating prior to a fresh onslaught on Ladysmith. The Boers have the latest news, after the artillery duel and ineffective skirmishes Tuesday the Boers took up good positions on Signal hill and Unibombardment. The two commanders continue to exchange courtesies. General White in response to General Joubert's request Tuesday sent the Boers an ultimatum to assist in the conveyance of the Boer wounded.

It is understood that the feeling of the Boers at Ladysmith has been greatly increased since all the Natal garrisons have been routed there, in spite of the knowledge of the Boers of the Boers' view from Cape Town. Now that the Boers are beginning to realize the seriousness of the situation in Natal, Merchants are apprehensive of the Boers overrunning the entire country and it is reported that many of them have instructed their representatives to leave Pietermaritzburg.

In spite of the optimism of military men there is a feeling of general anxiety at Cape Town. The Orange river is reported to be so swollen that the drifts are impassable. The Boers hold the wagon bridge at Philippolis, which is the only means of crossing. The possibility of Lady Randolph Churchill accompanying the American hospital ship, the Albatross, to Cape Town has aroused much interest here. Her ladyship said to a representative of the Associated Press today: "The question of my going is dependent upon several contingencies. It is quite possible I may go, but the matter has not yet been fully determined upon."

Lady Churchill has taken the most active part in the scheme to fit out the Maine and her friends are now anxious that she should see the matter through personally.

News that Colenso has been evacuated was another bitter pill for the British public, and is arousing fear that the continued retreat of the Boers will prove true. A significant fact is that the war office does not say when Colenso was evacuated, so the state of affairs which emanated Thursday from Dr. Leyds, the diplomatic representative of the Transvaal, who is located at Brussels, that the Boers had captured Colenso, was possibly true. There is much apprehension that they were suppressing bad news.

The Kimberley correspondent of the Daily Mail in a dispatch filed Nov. 4 and forwarded by way of Orange river, says:

"The Boers are still in force in this vicinity. On the evening of the 3rd a patrol was fired on in the neighborhood of the Wessels mine, the enemy expending a quantity of ammunition ineffectually, however, owing to the long range. A Free State burgher with a pass from the enemy has brought 300 oxen into the town."

"The enemy is reported to have three siege guns in position at Oliphantfontein, four miles from Wessels."

MANY SMALL SKIRMISHES.

Shots Exchanged Between the British and Transvaal Troops.

Cape Town, Nov. 4.—A delayed dispatch from Bulwerway dated Oct. 26, announces that in the event of reinforcements being needed the volunteers would be immediately called out.

A Port Tull dispatch dated Oct. 26 says about 200 Boers, including Colonel Plummer's column and the Boers at Port Tull. The British had one man wounded.

A British patrol reconnoitering Port Tull Oct. 27 captured five Boers. It was then believed the bulk of the Boer army had retired from Port Tull going south and leaving the Boers in the hands of the British. The natives are searching for horses.

A British patrol Oct. 28 stampeded a number of Boers, capturing five. Colonel Plummer was still sending reconnoitering parties up and down the river and there was little doubt the enemy had returned to the river.

On Oct. 29, Captains White and Glynn with 25 men, reconnoitered a kopje at Port Tull. The Boers fired two shots at the British. The British returned fire and two Boers were killed in the skirmish. One Boer was killed in the skirmish. One Boer was killed in the skirmish.

TREATED WELL BY BOERS.

British Prisoners Spend Their Time Playing Football.

Cape Town, Nov. 2.—(Delayed in transmission).—A dispatch from Pretoria, under date of Tuesday, says Colonel Modley, who commanded the British prisoners captured by the Boers, declined on being informed of the Boers' treatment of the prisoners, but praised the treatment he and his men had received at the hands of the Boers. The British prisoners were playing football at the time their commander was interviewed. Their officers are anxious to be exchanged.

Among the papers found at Dundee, according to the Pretoria dispatch, was a congratulatory telegram from Lady Symonds to her husband, Commandant General Joubert sent the message to Ladysmith. General Symonds was buried with the fullest honors.

BODY OF GENERAL KOCK.

Remains of the Boer Officer Have Been Taken to Pretoria.

Cape Town, Nov. 2.—(Delayed in transmission).—According to an undated dispatch received here from Ladysmith the body of General Kock, the Boer commander who was wounded in the battle of Glencoe, captured and taken to Ladysmith, died recently, has been taken to Pretoria.

The dispatch added that Ladysmith townspeople including the women witnessed the burial at Ladysmith. It was also said that the resurrection of the Boers was hourly expected. The Boers are traversing Zululand, holding flags over the British magistracies.

BOERS OCCUPY GABERONS.

Mines in Matabeleland Being Operated by Native Labor.

Cape Town, Nov. 4.—A dispatch from Bulwerway, dated Oct. 27, says the Boers are reported to be occupying Gaberons, King, Khama and other districts, and watching the border. Lieutenant Llewellyn has retired to Mochudi.

The dispatch also says that all the natives in Matabeleland are being operated and that native labor is obtainable. The natives report that the Boers are retreating in a southerly direction.

CAMPAGNS ARE BROUGHT TO END

Speechmaking Closes in the Various States.

SITUATION IN OHIO IS VERY UNCERTAIN

Fight in Kentucky Has Been On Goebel's Personality.

The Remarkable Candidacy of Jones.

Non-partisan, In President McKinley's Home State, Makes the Fate of the Two Big Parties Doubtful—Close Contest in Nebraska With a Large Amount of the Element of Bitterness.

Cincinnati, Nov. 4.—Tonight practically closed the debate in Ohio in the campaign for the election of state and county officers. Six tickets are before the people—Democratic, Republican, Non-partisan, Prohibition, Union Reform and Socialist-Labor. The last three named have not made any showing that indicates any more than the ordinary number of votes, but the progress of the campaign has shown that the other three parties will poll a more than fair vote.

The registration in all the large cities is absolutely large for an election of this kind. How the vote will be distributed between McLean, Nash and Jones is not known. The Boers have carried the state for governor by pluralities ranging from 2,500 to 32,000. Hence, at the beginning of the campaign, the Boers conceded that Nash would be elected.

Candidacy of Jones.

The element that disturbed all calculations is the novel candidacy of Samuel M. Jones, the Non-partisan candidate. His phenomenal vote as an independent candidate for mayor in Toledo gave him wide publicity, but he scorned the nomination by any party convention, and came before the people as a Non-partisan candidate by virtue of petitions from the required number of voters to place his name on the official ballot.

Untrammeled by party allegiance or party platform, Jones has made a vigorous campaign, and has created enough apprehension among both Democrats and Republicans to make the whole situation uncertain. It is generally believed that his candidacy is considerable, and the puzzling question is from which party will he take the most votes?

Has Been a Hard Fight.

The Republicans have made a vigorous campaign, with the leading idea that the Boers are in the hands of his Philippine policy. That, indeed, has been the most prominent point of attack by the Democrats, so that state issues, the money question and everything else has been generally ignored. The Democrats have made a fight against trusts, and especially against Senator Hanna. This does not appear to have done much good, for the Boers will join the Republican ticket, and the Democrats are practically united, while the Republicans have serious factional fights in Cincinnati, Cleveland and other places.

With these conditions prevailing it is impossible to do more than to pronounce the result in doubt. The Jones candidacy is expected to be greatest in cities and factory towns, where large numbers of workmen are employed.

FIGHT WAS ON GOEBEL.

His Personality Is Attacked in the Kentucky Campaign.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 4.—The personality of William Goebel, the regular nominee of the Democratic party, has been the principal theme of discussion in the campaign which will end next Tuesday in the election of a full state ticket. The Boers are attacking Goebel for his record, which is headed by W. S. Taylor, present attorney general, have directed their energies mainly against the Boer leader and the policies which have become associated with his name, notably the Goebel election law and the present state affectation of railroads. Mr. Goebel is also antagonized by the Boers for his record in the campaign of 1908, when he placed in nomination a state ticket headed by John Young Brown. This element, under the name of the "Honest Election League," has waged a bitter personal campaign against Goebel, assailing his conduct in the convention which nominated him, his entire career in the state's policies and the Goebel election law.

On the other hand, Mr. Goebel has had the support of a well organized state machine, the endorsement of the Democratic national committee and the active assistance of several of the national leaders of the party, notably William J. Bryan, ex-Governor Stone of Missouri and Congressman Bailey of Georgia.

National issues have not figured in the campaign except as they were introduced by this last class of speakers. They preceded that of the Boers' influence on the ground that the fight in Kentucky this fall is a forerunner of the battle of 1909 and its result might seriously affect the latter.

State tickets have been put up by Populist, Prohibitionist and Social Labor parties, but the three leading tickets have attracted most of the interest of the campaign.

In addition to state officers, a legislature is to be chosen which will select a successor to United States Senator Shelby. Ex-Senator C. S. Blackburn is an avowed candidate for this place and has stamped the state with his name.

The campaign has been characterized by a bitterness of feeling second only to that of 1896, when, as is the case here, the Boers and Democrats were united, while the Democrats were divided on entirely different lines.

Tuesday's contest at the polls is expected to be exciting and very close.

BITTERNESS IN NEBRASKA.

An Off Year Campaign, But An Exciting One.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 4.—For an off-year campaign the one which practically closed in Nebraska today has been more closely contested, with many of the elements of bitterness injected, than for years. Speakers of national reputation have covered the state thoroughly, and the interest and enthusiasm aroused is nearly equal to that of a presidential year. Three tickets are in the field, but the Prohibitionists will play so small a part as to hardly be a factor, leaders of the party admitting that nominations were made merely to keep up the organization.

The fight is, therefore, squarely between the Republicans, with Judge M. B. Reese for supreme justice, heading the ticket, and a compact fusion of Populists, Democrats and Free State Republicans, with ex-Governor Silas Holcomb as the head of the ticket. The Boers are all for the fusion, but the Democrats at the outset, making state questions the leading issues, but this was changed as soon as the Hon. W. J. Bryan entered the campaign and for the last month national questions have been discussed almost exclusively.

Mr. Bryan has made a very thorough canvass of the state speaking in opposition to imperialism and trusts and in favor of the income tax. Republican campaigners adapted themselves to the new programme and have defended the policy of the war and management of the Philippines. The currency question has cut but little figure in the campaign.

GOLD DEMOCRATS FALL IN.

Will All Support Payne For Governor in Massachusetts.

Boston, Nov. 4.—A number of gold Democrats of this state, including Charles B. Codman, Thomas Wentworth Higginson, William Brewster, Daniel Eustis, Harvey N. Shepard, Winslow Warren, Charles Fletcher and Gamaliel Bradford, have issued an address to the effect that the state will support Robert Treat Payne, Jr., Democratic candidate for governor.

Signers of the appeal say that while they do not agree with all the planks in the Democratic platform, they believe that "it is of supreme importance to make clear to the president and to the congress that a policy of criminal aggression in the Philippines does not receive the support of the country."

REPUBLICANS CLAIM IOWA.

Democrats, However, Believe They Will Elect Governor.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 4.—The political campaign in Iowa practically closed this evening with rallies in the principal cities. A great Republican meeting was held in Des Moines, where Congressman Henderson, Hull and other State Chairman Weaver of the Republicans, in a statement tonight, said there was no doubt of a great Republican victory. The Boers are depending upon the manner in which the votes were polled.

State Chairman Huffman of the Democratic state committee, while making no estimates, said he was satisfied with the outlook, and thought the Democratic candidate for governor would be elected. There are also estimates, however, that the Republicans will elect about 115 of the 150 members of the legislature. The Boers are depending upon the manner in which the votes were polled.

The Democrats have been making a sort of still hunt in the legislative district, but the Boers are depending upon the manner in which the votes were polled.

result will be: Fusion, 152,000; Tammany, 126,000; Socialist, etc., 40,000. Richard Croker declares that figures given by his district leaders insure a Tammany plurality of 55,000. Croker votes. James H. Reynolds of the Independent Labor party claims a vote of 35,000 for his party and a fusion plurality of 15,000 to 25,000.

CLOSE IN MARYLAND.

But Bets Are Offered Two to One On the Democrats.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 4.—The campaign in Maryland closed tonight with the leaders of both parties claiming everything, but with the betting decidedly in favor of the Democrats. Odds of 2 to 1 are being freely offered on Smith's election as governor, with but few takers, though why this should be is not apparent. A man prejudiced observer. The officers to be elected on Tuesday are governor, comptroller and attorney general. A new legislature will convene in January. It is chosen, but no United States senator is to be elected at the coming session.

The Republican candidate for governor is Charles D. Keyser, who was elected four years ago by something more than 17,000 plurality. In the following year McKinley carried the state by a plurality of 10,000. There has been a change, the state election two years ago being very close, while the congressional vote last year showed such a decided gain as to again put the state in the doubtful column.

In May last Thomas G. Hayes, Democratic candidate for mayor of Baltimore, was elected by over 4,000 plurality, and it is the results of these contests which give the Democrats confidence that John W. Waller, their candidate, will win a tight race. It has been made by the Democrats on purely local issues, no mention of the currency, tariff or expansion appearing in their platform. The Boers are depending upon the manner in which the votes were polled.

The Republicans also adopted this policy at first, although their platform collected a gold standard, a protection and an expansion plank, but latterly they have been discussing the currency and the tariff. The Boers are depending upon the manner in which the votes were polled.

SHARKE CRIES RAUCOUSLY

Says the Decision Was the Rankest Klud of Robbery.

JEFFRIES BUT BIG KID

DENIES THAT HE FOULED DURING THE FIGHT.

The Champion Is Disappointed Because He Did Not Knock His Man Out—Referee Siler Says That Jim Fought a Clean Battle and Won Fairly.

New York, Nov. 4.—After the Sharkey-Jeffries bout was over last night, the two pugilists were taken to separate Turkish bath establishments up town. With two broken ribs and a lame shoulder, Sharkey was willing to be assisted in his movements, and when he and his attendants reached their destination after a long ride in a cab, he was carried into the bath-house and rubbed down. During that operation he talked a little, saying he would have put Jeffries out if he had not been wrenched from the fight in the eighteenth round. It was the rankest kind of a fight, he said. He did not know how the shoulder was wrenched. Sharkey said Jeffries did not win that fight.
